Dear Mrs. Martin:

Thank you so much for the kind and professional assistance you provided on my recent visit to your library. I was not too sure how much information could be found about my family but with your help I found much more than had been anticipated.

Upon my return home I found that my father wrote that his father, Emanuel Handy, Jr. was born in Hamboro, Mississippi. I have looked in the Zip Code book and do not find such a place. It was also said that Emanuel Handy, Sr. was owned by a man named Colonel Robert. During the Civil War Emanuel, Sr. ran away to Port Hudson, LA and joined the Union Army. I have seen his service record as he was discharged a Sergeant.

My grandfather's mother died when he was one year old. Following the war Emanuel, Sr. reclaimed the two children and returned to Copiah County. Your theory as to how he got to Copiah County deserves some merit. You may recall that the new family was listed in the 1870 U.S. Census.

It has been documented that in 1870 Emanuel, Sr. was a member of the state legislature. Following Reconstruction he went to the state of Kansas. He died December 8, 1922 and was buried in the Veterans section of a cemetery in Atchison, KA. I was fortunate to see the grave in 1977.

If in your service you find any further information which might be helpful in my search of the Handy lineage it would be highly appreciated if you would share the same with me.

Thank you again for your helpful assistance. I look forward to another visit to your wonderful facility. In the meantime may you be spiritually strengthened as you acknowledge God's Amazing Grace.

Sincerely Yours,

Dear Mrs. Martin:

Enclosed is a copy of a list of names from the 1870 Mississippi Census. It was made when I visited your library last week. I am not certain of the page but I am sure you will be able to find it.

You will note a number of Handy's in the state at that time. I am interested in the number of Handy's living in Copiah County. Hence it is requested that you make copies of each of the records of the ten Handy households living in Copiah county at that time. I am enclosing a check to cover the copying costs.

Thank you again for the invaluable assistance you provided in the search for more information about my ancestors. Hopefully I may be able to visit your office in the not too far distant future. In the meantime, may you and yours be spiritually enriched and rewarded as you acknowledge God's Amazing Grace.

Sincerely Yours,
